Flask • React • AWS • CSS

A SoundCloud clone that allows users to upload, listen to, comment on, and like music.

- Coded the update song feature to display the current file names uploaded, then allow updates to a single or multiple inputs through AWS uploads.
- Created a profile page that allowed the user to upload a profile picture, displayed the logged-in user's username, and had links to pages with the user's uploaded songs and likes.
- Styled the majority of the site with CSS and HTML.
